NEW PROGRAM!

Hiking in the Smokies for Ages 5 and up

A new program for families of all ages. Authors Charles Maynard and Hal Hubbs will lead a series of hikes on some of the park's classic trails, and share stories of the history and natural splendor of the Smokies. Hikes will be on easy to moderate difficulty trails. Cost is $5.00 per person per hike. September 30 - Lynn Camp Prong will be the first hike in the series. This 1.3 mile roundtrip walk is an easy one for all ages and offers children ample opportunities to play in the creek. Pre-registration required. <http://www.parksrec.com/adult-programs.html#hiking>

UPCOMING PROGRAMS FOR KIDS

Basic Acting for Kids for Ages 7-16

A fun class designed to build confidence and stretch your child's imagination, with learning through theatre games, movement and basic creative exercises used in training actors. Cost for the 6-week session is $90, and the next session begins Sunday, September 24.

Kids in Clay Pottery for Ages 6-10

Students will create fun projects as well as learn hand-building techniques such as coiling, pinching and slab work. Taught by Leanne Moe of Studio 212. Cost is $65 for the 4-week session, which begins on Tuesday, September 5.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

Adult Volleyball & Basketball

Registration begins September 25. Leagues are available for men and women, each having a 12-game season. Cost is $250 per team for volleyball, and $440 per team (plus $3.50 per player) for basketball. Online registration is not available – register in the Parks & Rec office only. Season begins early November.

Adult Tennis Instruction Tennis In No Time

This class is designed for new players. Learn the basics in four classes, held on Tuesday & Thursday mornings this fall. The next session begins September 12, at $50 per 4-class session.

Cardio Tennis

For all levels of players, this high energy class with music combines the sport of tennis with cardiovascular exercise for a calorie burning work-out. The 4-week session begins on Saturday, September 9 at 8:30 AM.

Adult Pottery - Introduction to Throwing

A fun and total hands-on foundation course on throwing on the wheel. Course fee of $80 includes clay and all firing and glaze materials. The next 4-week session begins Tuesday evening, September 5. Classes are held at Studio 212. Registration available online or at the Parks & Rec office.

Run 4 Fun Running Program

Run 4 Fun I and Run 4 Fun II are 10-week training programs developed for different running levels. Classes meet Monday evenings, and include running education, running, core work, stretching, and cool down. Cost for the 10-week session is $55.00. Ages 12 & up are welcome if accompanied by a parent or guardian also enrolled in the course.

The Parks & Rec Administrative Office will be closed Monday, September 4 for Labor Day.
